

Palmer Electric Secures Wiring Contract for Seventh Office Building in SouthPark

WINTER PARK, Fla., July 18, 2008 — The commercial division of Palmer Electric Company announced today its contract with general contractor Brasfield & Gorrie, LLC to wire its seventh office building in SouthPark, an office and commerce park in Orlando, Fla. Palmer's scope of services includes site and building electrical, and systems for fire alarm, access control and lightning protection for 900 SouthPark, a two-story, 18,900-square-foot office building. The project which began on June 1st is scheduled for completion in November of this year.

Flagler Development Company Land Holdings, LLC is the developer. HuntonBrady Architects of Orlando, Fla., is the architect. CHPA Consulting Engineers of Maitland, Fla., is providing electrical engineering.